

Maryum and Ali's Special Toy

By Shane Connelly's AI Childrens Book Generator

Maryum loved to play with her friends. One sunny day at the park, she saw a shiny, colorful toy peeking out of her friend Ali's bag.

Without asking, Maryum took the toy to play with. She was so excited that she didn't notice Ali watching her.

Ali saw her and felt sad. 'Maryum, that's my special toy,' Ali said softly.

Maryum felt bad for making Ali upset. She gave the toy back and said, 'I'm sorry, Ali. I should have asked first.'

Ali smiled and said, 'It's okay, Maryum. Let's play together.'

From that day, Maryum always asked before touching her friends' things. She learned that respecting others' privacy and belongings made everyone happier.
