With a nod and a smile, they agreed to try, To step into each other's world, and let their spirits fly.

Amber learned to look closely, and see what's beneath, While
Dexter painted his heart out, with a wreath.

Soon they found, in each other's world, joy abound. They shared their new skills, in excitement, they found.

They learned that two worlds are better as one, For in sharing their talents, new fun had begun.

Amber and Dexter knew, together they'd roam, With both art and adventure, they'd always find home.
